
Michael Hunter

www.webcasador.com

email: webcasador@gmail.com

phone: 404-509-7149

A front-end developer and designer seeking to use my creative skills to execute engaging and powerful designs. I am passionate about finding the balance between functional and beautiful to create a thoughtful user experience.

My rich background in education that has helped me to hone my abilities to prioritize and implement effective strategies. I am looking to apply my skills in creative thinking and my knowledge of design fundamentals to aid in the creation of fully developed web concepts, in both team-based and individual setting.

Skills

- Excellent communication skills, developed through experience in working with students and parents
- Flexible team member with experience in collaborating with colleagues to plan and create projects
- Highly effective at implementing multiple strategies simultaneously within limited time frames

Technologies

- HTML5
- CSS3
- Javascript
- JQuery
- SCSS
- Gulp
- Sublime
- Photoshop

Languages

- Spanish: full proficiency in oral communication

Education

The Creative Circus

Jan 2014 – Dec 2015

student of Interactive Design and Development.

Framingham State University

2004-2006

Masters of Education

Georgia State University

2000-2002

Certification in Art Education P-12

Georgia Southern University

1993-1998

Bachelor of Fine Arts

Experience

High Point Elementary

2010-present

Fine Arts Teacher

Sandy Springs, GA

Art teacher managing and implementing rigorous curriculum for multiple levels of students.

Creek View Elementary

2006-2010

Fine Arts Teacher

Alpharetta, GA

Art teacher managing and implementing rigorous curriculum for multiple levels of students.

Colegio Maya

2003-2006

Fine Arts Teacher (grades PK-5) & Elementary Librarian

Guatemala City, Guatemala

Served dual duties managing and teaching multiple curriculums in an international setting.

